THE SENIOR CLASS OF
JAMES WALKER MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
SCHOOL OF NURSING
PRESENTS

The Epitome of 1962

WITH ITS THEME . . .

The Sand and the Sea

Class Motto: To reach the port of Heaven we must sail sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it. But we must sail, and not drift nor lie at anchor.

—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

The Florence Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug. I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standards of my profession and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping and all family affairs coming into my knowledge in the practice of my calling. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

Dedication

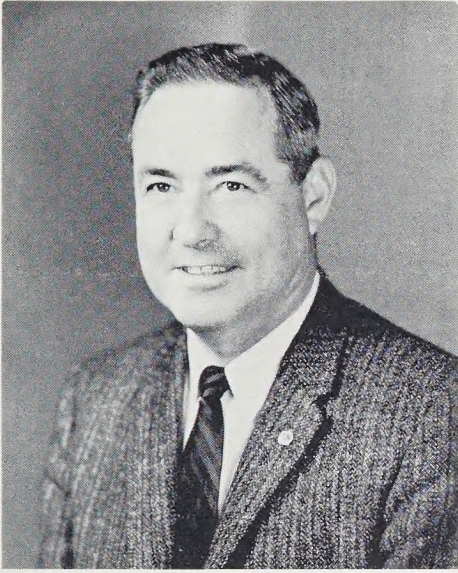

The Graduating Class of 1962 takes great honor in dedicating this annual to MRS. MARITA HOWARD, R. N. As a ship needs a captain so we in our lives need a guide. For two years Mrs. Howard has been our guide in our chosen profession. As a friend she has used her mind and heart's wisdom to help us accomplish our goal, and we have respected and loved her.

Last Will and Testament

State of North Carolina
County of New Hanover
City of Wilmington
School of Nursing

We, the graduates of James Walker Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, as of September 1, 1962, wish for our last wills to be cherished by those we have known for the past three years. As we set our sails and drift to yonder rise, we leave these things to you.

Article I

To our Class Advisor, Mrs. Marita Howard, as we set our sails of departure, we leave with many fond memories of you in our hearts.

Article II

To our doctors, we wish to express our sincere appreciation for the understanding and guidance you have given us in the past three years.

Article III

To our faculty, headnurses, supervisors, and directors, we leave our deepest appreciation, for without each of you our goal would have been far out of reach.

Article IV

To Mrs. Causey and Mrs. Garner, our mothers away from home, we leave saying "we love you."

Article V

To our underclassmen, we leave the privilege of having three phones on their floor to the class who wins the fight.

Article VI

To our families and friends whose love and understanding has brought us ashore when we were on the verge of sinking, we graduate with the hopes of fulfilling your high expectations.

Article VII

We, Carolyn Batson and Ethel Butler, "The Bobbsy Twins," leave our ability to get demerits to anyone who can have as much fun getting them as we did.

I, Barbara Burton, leave the remainder of my 1962 calender to anyone who wishes to join me in counting the days.

I, Pat Burton, leave my ability to aggravate Uncle Zeb and charm him at the same time to any poor freshman who needs it.

I, Elsie Cleve, leave taking with me everything that isn't nailed down.

We, Rebecca Crowell and Jo Ann Hines, leave our ability to oversleep and miss breakfast and the morning report to any student as tired and weary as we.

I, Cecelia Daily, leave all my lonely hours of waiting to Mildred Lockhart, hoping hers will not seem as long.

I, Gail Gibson, leave planning to take all the breaks I never got on Upper Hall.

I, Amelia Grady, leave with every intention of taking this New Year's Eve off.

I, Betty Lou Hudson, leave taking with me many fond memories, especially of my trips to National, State, and District meetings wishing every student could attend as many as I.

I, Mary Lee Mauney, leave my ability to put Denture Cream on hemorrhoids to anyone who tries to read the label in the dark.

I, Jackie Miller, leave my appointments with Dr. Van Velsor to anyone who needs them hoping they will have as much success as I.

I, Vickie Mintz, leave my ability to twist to anyone who can face the Director of Nursing at 1:20 A.M.

I, Linda McQueen, leave my admiration for Dr. Robert Moore, wishing I could take his "big heart" with me.

I, Irene Sasser, leave my heavy foot for driving to anyone who has a big purse to go with it.

I, Jane Scott, leave my partying, witty humor and inability to keep a secret to any Junior with as big mouth as mine.

I, Anita Soles, leave my empty Winston packs to Linda Vann and my love for Pepsis to Dr. Weinel.

I, Retha Williams, leave my ability to remember and re-tell jokes to anyone who enjoys them as much as I.
